He is running through a dark, rocky landscape, shouting 'SIR! I THINK WE MADE IT TO THE SAFE ZONE!' in a speech bubble. In the foreground, a large, white, skull-like face is visible, possibly a villain or a large creature. The background is dark and rocky, with a large, white, skull-like face in the foreground. The panel is framed by a black border.

A comic book panel featuring a large, blue, armored monster with a skull-like head. The monster has a speech bubble that says "RETREAT!" and is roaring, with a large "RO" sound effect. In the background, two smaller figures are running away. The panel is framed by a green border.
